Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, part I, Line 1a	The president of the college lives in an off-campus house the rental value of which is reported as taxable compensation in accordance with applicable laws. The college covers the costs of routine utilities, routine home maintenance and repair, lawn services, and snow removal for the college owned-property. The president is reimbursed for reasonable travel expenses, as determined by the college in its sole discretion, incurred by his spouse to the extent that she accompanies him in the performance of his duties. Such reimbursements will be added to the president's taxable income, when appropriate, in accordance with applicable tax laws. Two employees have a membership to a local country club paid for by the college, the president and the vice president - college advancement. The business purpose is for the entertainment of potential donors to the college or other important guests. The fair value of personal usage, if any, is added to the employee's taxable compensation in accordance with applicable tax law.
Schedule J, part I, Line 4	The president's contract contains a long-term nonqualified deferred compensation plan. Deferred compensation totaling $31,000 was accrued as of 6/30/16, no amounts were contributed during calendar year 2015. Additionally, the president's contract contains a provision for certain termination benefits. For termination under certain conditions, the provisions include continuation of current salary at the rate in effect as of the date of termination for the lesser of 12 months following the termination date or the expiration of his current contract.
Schedule J, part I, Line 7	A pay-for-performance bonus was paid to certain college administrators and staff. Such payments were based on their annual evaluation and decided by their supervisor.

Explanation

Form 990, Part III,
Line 1

(continued) it does so in a learning community that encourages the lifelong pursuit of the truth and fosters intellectual, moral and spiritual growth to sustain and enrich its graduates' personal lives, work, and engagement within local, national, and global communities

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 4	In September 2015, the colleges board of trustees voted to approve changes to the colleges bylaws which had last been approved in January 2009. The new bylaws do not make any significant change in the governance of the college. Rather, they clarified the reserved powers of the members of the corporation and the boards role in key aspects of the colleges functioning such as the appointment and supervision of the colleges president and the revision of the faculty handbook.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The form 990 is prepared by management of the college and reviewed by tax advisors from an independent accounting firm. The draft form 990 is then reviewed by the Audit committee and recommended for approval by the governing body. Subsequently, the form 990 is provided to all members of the governing body with opportunity to raise questions or issues. After resolution and prior to filing the form 990 with the IRS, the draft form 990 is submitted for approval by the Executive committee of the college's board of trustees.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	A written copy of the conflict of interest policy is distributed annually to the trustees of the governing board and officers who are asked to complete a conflict of interest disclosure form indicating they are in compliance with the policy and/or disclosing any potential conflicts of interest. The president's office receives and reviews the responses to determine if there are any potential conflicts that need to be disclosed, discussed and/or mitigated. In accordance with the policy "A person who has a conflict of interest shall not participate in or be permitted to hear the board's or committee's discussion of the matter except to disclose material facts and to respond to questions. Such person shall not attempt to exert his or her personal influence with respect to the matter, either at or outside the meeting."

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 16b	The college is a partner in a real estate development within close proximity to the college. The college owned unusable land, sold the land, and took interest in a partnership that will develop housing and rental units. The college receives a federal form k-1 each period reporting rental income that passes through to the college. The college's involvement is purely passive in nature and no unrelated business income was earned in FY 16 nor is expected from the partnership in the future. This passive activity is insignificant to the overall operations of the college, provides a small passive revenue stream to the college, helped relieve the college of unusable land and provides the Manchester community an opportunity to build housing near the college. The board of trustees and management approved all of the transactions leading up to the college's involvement in the partnership, and all negotiations were conducted at arms-length and fair value.
