Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	Collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the College's inception, are not recognized as assets on the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired. Contributed collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b	The College maintains custodial or "pass through" accounts for Federal student loans, Pell grant and state grants. Funds are held in these accounts until distributed to individual students. The College also maintains custodial accounts for student government and student ministry groups and activities.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The intended use of endowment funds is driven by donor restrictions on our endowments. Approximately 66% of appropriated revenues this year were in scholarship awards. 18% of revenues supported general activities and physical plant. The remaining 16% was allocated to instructional activities and academic support programs. Distributions of income are made using a total return method. We use a spending rate of 4.25% of the 3 year rolling average of the fair market value of the investments.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	FIN 48 Footnote. The College follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the financial statements if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The College is an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (the Code), and is generally exempt from income taxes pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. The College is responsible for the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, identifying and reporting unrelated income, determining its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it was nexus, and identifying and evaluating other matters that may be considered tax positions. The tax years ended June 30, 2013, 2014, and 2015 are still open to audit for federal and state purposes. The College has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	This figure includes the FWS apportionment budget allocation of 188,033 included in income on the financial statements and special events expenses of 1,039,570 included in expense on the financial statements.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Included here are scholarships and grants of 25,525,026 treated as tuition discount on the financial statements, FSEOG and FWS of 437,461 treated as pass through activity on the financial statements and not reflected in income.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 2d	This figure includes FWS apportionment budget allocation of 188,033 included in income on the financial statements, special events expenses of 1,039,570 included in expense on the financial statements, change in fair value of interest rate swap agreements of 1,582,213.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 4b	- Included here are scholarships and grants of 25,525,026 treated as tuition discount on the financial statements, FSEOG and FWS of 437,461 treated as pass through activity on the financial statements and not reflected in expense, change in fair value of split interest agreements of $76,536.

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	Grants and scholarships to international students are treated as tuition discounts and are applied as accounting credits on each student's bill. They are not paid directly to the student. Merit scholarships are awarded based on academic criteria and are renewed annually based on satisfactory GPA requirements that are verified by the Registrar's Office. Donated scholarship funds are awarded based on criteria provided by donors. Specific eligibility is verified annually by the Registrar's Office, Admissions and the Financial Aid Office. Need based grants are awarded based on the student's determined financial need. The College uses information provided by the CSS Profile of the College Board. The grant amount is carried forward from year to year unless there is a significant change in determined financial need.
