4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,653,328 including grants of $ 957,612) (Revenue $)

During the reporting year, WHFC continued programming focused on orphan care and orphan prevention. Our operational funding of twelve orphanages in five countries benefitted thousands of children who have a low likelihood of adoption or foster care solutions. With this funding, children received proper nutrition, stable and trained caregivers, and educational, medical and psychological services. Hundreds of special needs children were provided with physical and cognitive therapy and programming to enhance their development and quality of life. In Moldova, 120 orphans benefitted from the individual attention from their own Granny, offering love and promoting strong attachment and fine and gross motor skill development. We continued support to older orphans in Eastern Europe and the Philippines so that they could receive skills training, education and confidence for an independent life upon leaving the orphanage. Orphan prevention initiatives continued to focus on health care, education and community development work. Over 3,000 families from a slum community in India received counseling and support services. In northern Ethiopia, 1,500 children ages 9-14 attended school for the first time thanks to a sizable grant from the philanthropic organization Geneva Global. In Addis Ababa, 60 at risk elementary school children received nutritious hot lunches to sustain them through the day. WHFC continued to partner with two hospitals in Ethiopia (one built by WHFC) through ongoing medical missions with a goal of building capacity and improving access and quality of treatment and care options for the surrounding communities. Child sponsorship programs aimed at family permanence in Ethiopia, Guatemala and India benefitted over 900 vulnerable children and their families so that family units can be stabilized and remain intact. In total during fiscal year 2016, our orphan care and orphan prevention work positively impacted the lives of 48,769 children and their families around the world.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,185,428 including grants of $ 182,500) (Revenue $ 1,284,867)

WHFC provides adoption placement services from six countries including the United States. During the year ended June 30, 2016, 73 children came home to their adoptive families. Thirty-one child-focused adoption subsidies were provided to assist families with the costs of adopting older and hard to place children who have serious medical conditions.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 571,207 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 187,000)

WHFC provides a range of adoption related services to clients throughout the United States. Expectant parents considering an adoptive placement of their unborn child receive counseling to support them in making the best decision for themselves and their child. Adoptive parents receive counseling and support from home study through post placement services. Wide Horizons continues its support of birth families, adoptive children and their families after placement through post-adopt services. Post adopt services range from letter deliver to birth families, referral services, and support for travel back to a child's birth country. During the reporting year, the organization supported more than 600 clients through these service offerings.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	Grant funding is reviewed and approved by the board initially during annual planning. Before a project is funded, potential grantees are required to complete a detailed proposal, including how the funds will be used, their budget, and clear objectives. Grantees are required to provide proof of their legal status. Reporting requirements include signed written acknowledgment of receipt of funding on organizational letterhead or by email from an organization's address, photos and interim and final financial statements during and at the end of the project, showing how the funds were used against the budget. In addition to financial reporting, interim and final reporting also includes an assessment of the project's progress, evaluation of success against stated objectives, and any challenges encountered. Grantees must sign a written agreement that they understand and accept Wide Horizons' policies regarding the use of funds and reporting obligations, including due dates, prior to receiving funding. In addition to this required reporting from the grantee, WHFC also conducts periodic site visits to the countries to assess projects and provide grantees with training on monitoring and report writing. Failure to comply with the requirements of this process results in disqualification from future funding opportunities.
