Part I Line 11 g vi The Program's support is calculated as the amount of operating expense per Program student. The operating expenses include Doshisha University tuition, faculty salaries, home-stay stipends, student meals, field trips, supplies, and other expenses.

Part IV Section D Line 3 The consortium schools each appoint a member to serve on the Program's Board of Directors. These directors have voting powers and a significant voice in the Program's investment policies and in directing the use of the Program's income and assets.

Part IV Section E Line 2a The Program directly furthers the educational purposes of the consortium colleges and universities in cooperation with Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan. The Program conducts a two-semester study-abroad program at Doshisha University for undergraduate students of American colleges and universities. Students study the Japanese language intensively and are provided a rigorous academic program that helps them live, experience and know more about Japan and Japanese culture.

Part IV Section E Line 2b All of the consortium's colleges and universities offer study-abroad programs. The consortium members use the Program for study-abroad in Japan that they would otherwise offer themselves if not for the Program's involvement.

 Program when the annual revenues are not sufficient to do so Some of the uses have been to support the visiting faculty fellow initiative whereby teachers are recruited from the member institutions to teach courses which allows the Program to expand and diversify its curriculum The endowment also provides support for small individualized research grants Part X Line 2 The Program is a not-for-profit organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization generally exempt from income tax pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code The Program recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authorities Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon settlement Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the Form 990, Part III, Line 1 The Associated Kyoto Program is sponsored by a consortium of American colleges and universities in cooperation with Doshisha University in Kyoto, Japan

The Program conducts a two-semester study-abroad program at Doshisha University for

language intensively and are provided a rigorous academic program that helps them live,

Form 990, Part V, Line 2 All wages paid to employees of the Program are disclosed via the related organizations (colleges and universities) with which these employees are affiliated Therefore, the Program does not file Form W-3. The colleges and universities from which employees receive W-2 Forms have filed all required federal employment tax returns. The remaining employees are paid in Japan

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11 The draft Form 990 is presented to the complete Board of Directors for feedback to the fiscal agent institution for any concerns. The final version is presented to all Board members prior to the filing deadline

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12 An extensive questionnaire is sent annually to all current officers, directors and key employees (along with former for the past five years) inquiring as to any potential areas of conflict. This questionnaire is returned to the fiscal agent for review with the Board Chair. If a response is not received, the questionnaire is sent a second time. Even after this reasonable effort, the Program did not receive a response from one current board director. Each individual is required to disclose any personal interest which s/he may have in any matter pending before the Program and shall refrain from participation in any decision on such matter. Any member of the Board, any subcommittee, or staff member who is also an officer, board member, committee member, or staff member of a client organization or vendor of the Program shall identify his or her affiliation with such agency or agencies, further, in connection with any committee or board action specifically directed to that agency, s/he shall not participate in the decision affecting that agency and the decision must be made and/or ratified by the full Board. Any member of the Board, any subcommittee, staff, and certain consultants shall refrain from obtaining any list of clients for personal or private solicitation purposes at any time during the term of their affiliation. The members must also certify that they are not currently, nor at any time during the past year, (1) a participant, directly or indirectly, in any arrangement, agreement, investment, or other activity with any vendor, supplier, or other party doing business with the Program which has resulted or could result in personal benefit to the Board member, nor (2) a recipient, directly or indirectly, of any salary payments or loans or gifts of any kind or any free service or discounts or other fees from or on behalf of any person or organization engaged in any transaction with the Program.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15. The Executive Committee of the Board determines compensation of the paid employees of the Program. It is presented to the full Board for approval.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19. All governing documents, conflict of interest policies, financial statements, and Form 990 for the Program are available to the public upon request.

The Program's Form 990 and audited financial statements are available on the website of the Massachusetts Attorney General.

Form 990, Part VII, Section A, Line 1a. The Program requests information on compensation paid by related organizations. If a response is not received, the request is made a second time.

Even after this reasonable effort, if the Program was unable to obtain related organization
