Explanation: Dear Sirs: This Form 990 is being filed late. The form was due November 15, 2016. The reason for the late filing is that for several years we had a board member who was a nonprofit attorney, who took care of our annual filings, including that they were done in a timely manner. After many years of service, the board member's director term ended and we failed to place the deadline on our calendar for the annual return. This oversight came to our attention in the past few weeks, upon which we have completed the return and have submitted it here. We have taken steps to ensure this does not happen again by marking the organization's calendar and including the timely return review by our board as part of our ongoing board training. Like many nonprofit organizations, we have a small staff with significant responsibilities. This was a mistake that we take very seriously and will take proper steps to see that it does not happen again.
