Reference*ExplanationForm 990, Part
VI, Line 11

The Form 990 was prepared by a nationally renowned accounting firm in conjunction with the organization's financial department. The form 990 is reviewed by management and distributed to the Board of Directors for review and comment. Comments are addressed and the Form is sent to the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12	A Director or officer shall disclose to the Board of Directors any potential conflicts of interest in connection with proposed actions of the Corporation. When any such conflict of interest is relevant to a matter requiring action by the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, such interested Director or officer shall not vote on the matter. Moreover, the interested Director or officer shall retire from the room in which the Board of Directors (or the committee) is meeting and shall not participate in the final deliberation or decision regarding the matter under consideration. However, the interested director or officer shall provide the Board of Directors or committee with any and all material information. The minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee shall reflect that a conflict of interest was disclosed and that the interested Director or officer was not present during the final discussion or vote and did not vote. When there is a doubt as to whether a conflict of interest exists, the matter shall be resolved by a vote of the Board of Directors, or the committee, excluding the interested Director or officer concerning whose situation the doubt has arisen. This policy shall be reviewed annually for the information and guidance of directors, officers and staff members, and any new directors, officers or staff members shall be advised of the policy and furnished a disclosure statement upon undertaking the duties of such office.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15	Process for determining compensation The Board of Directors determines compensation of the CEO The organization's Chief Executive determines the compensation of the other senior staff and may utilize available market data, salary survey results and other available tools to substantiate decisions At least bi-annually, the organization participates in the InsideNGO Salary and Benefits Survey This survey provides compensation data for the President/CEO/Executive Director level position, among others, based on responses from over 140 participating organizations All participants are engaged in international development or relief work In combination with data collected from peer organization form 990s, the CEOs salary is evaluated against the marketplace

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 19	The taxpayer makes its Form 990 available to the public by retaining a copy at its place of business and by posting it on the Americares Foundation website, www.americares.org. The Form 990 is likewise published on the internet at www.guidestar.org. The organization's financial activities are presented in the consolidated financial statements of its parent organization, Americares Foundation, Inc. and are summarized in the annual report, which is available on the Americares website. Governing documents are not ordinarily made available to the public. But, if requested, will be provided at managements discretion.
