990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	The Bhutan Foundation provides grants to civil society organizations and government agencies in Bhutan. The Foundation also provides a small number of grants to institutions and individuals in Bhutan under specific program areas. Grants are given through board approved grant making procedures, which include a legal and binding Grant Agreement with all grantees. The Grant Agreement describes the purpose of grant, objectives, budget, approved funding, and expected outcomes, including reporting requirements. The Bhutan Foundation has an office in Bhutan with full time staff who are responsible for the monitoring of grants through field visits to project sites and for evaluating the financial and descriptive grant reports from grantees. All registered civil society organizations in Bhutan are required to be audited every two years, and all government agencies are audited every year.
