part I	The Institute has purchased and has received donations of documents of national historical significance. The documents are primarily maintained for public exhibition, education, and research in furtherance of public service, rather than for financial gain. In conformity with accounting policies generally followed by museums, the value of the historical documents has been excluded from the statement of financial position, and gifts of historical documents are excluded from revenue in the statement of activities. Purchases of historical documents are recorded as decreases in net assets in the statement of activities.

PART III -

Founded in 1994 by philanthropists Richard Gilder and Lewis E. Lehrman, the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History (the institute") is the nation's leading American history organization dedicated to K-12 education. The Institute's mission is to promote the knowledge and understanding of American history through educational programs and resources. At the Institute's core is the Gilder Lehrman Collection, one of the great archives in American history. Drawing the 65,000 documents in the Gilder Lehrman Collection and an extensive network of eminent historians, the Institute provides teachers, students, and the general public with direct access to unique primary source materials.
