P.6. Part VI, Section A, Line 11. 990 Review Process: The Executive Director and a Board officer, as available, have a meeting with the external consultant to review the form 990 and its required attachments and schedules. During this meeting, a review of all financial and narrative information is undertaken to make sure all reports and schedules reflect the actual operating results of the agency for the most recently completed fiscal year. After this process,

The Executive Director provides a summary presentation of the 990 at the agency's next board meeting. The Executive Director files the completed return with the Internal Revenue Service.

P.6. Part VI, Section B, Line 12C. Conflict of Interest Disclosure: The agency maintains a board resource manual with all policies and procedures. Each Board Member has access to the manual and the orientation to fully explain the roles and responsibilities of each member. The Executive Director and Board Executive committee work together to ensure compliance with the conflict of interest policy. The agency's Executive committee works to ensure compliance with Board Policies

P.6. Part VI, Section B, Line 15. Compensation Review. The agency executive director and support staff work together to secure non profit salary survey information from a variety of non profit sources. This information along with other non profit sector trend and related agency data is used to develop a salary range for executive, management and staff salaries.

This information, along with the agency's salary history form the basis for compensation arrangements and updates.

P.6. Part VI, Section C, Line 19. The agency complies with all required filings and disclosures in a timely manner.

The agency also makes available its public documents to any interested party, who makes a written request. These requests are generally answered within ten business days of receipt. The agency does not publish its internal financial documents.
