Legacy is a PK-12 private University Model Christian School with an enrollment of approximately 400 students. Legacy's students benefit from small classroom sizes taught by certified teachers. They are perennial recipients of awards in regional spelling bee, math, science fair and art competitions and consistently outperform the national average in every category of the TerraNova standardized test as well as the PSAT exam. Middle and High School students compete in up to 10 sports in the TAPPS league. Starting in Middle School, students take leadership classes, with a curriculum focused on strengthening the foundations of their faith and being able to share and defend it. Graduates have been accepted, have received scholarships, and are attending major universities.
