Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

Income Taxes - FORM 990, SCHEDULE D, PART X	The University has been classified as an organization described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and, therefore, is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Code and similar State of New Jersey tax provisions. Federal law imposes tax on income that is not related to an organization's tax-exempt purposes or otherwise excluded under the Code. The University has processes presently in place to ensure the maintenance of its tax-exempt status, to identify and report unrelated income, determine its filing and tax obligations in jurisdictions for which it has nexus, and to review other matters that may be considered tax positions. Management of the University believes there are no uncertain tax positions. The tax years ended 2013, 2014, 2015, and 2016 are still open to audit for federal purposes.

Return Reference	Explanation
Compensation Information PART I, LINE 1	The Stevens Institute of Technology guidelines regarding first class/business class travel and spousal travel are included in the Stevens Business and Travel Expense Policy. Expenses incurred for accompanying companions/spouses are considered personal in nature except on occasions when attendance of a companion/spouse at an event serves a bona fide business purpose for the University and the presence of the companion/spouse is essential (not just beneficial) to the employee being able to carry out the business purpose for the University, given that attendance is essential, this is not taxable to the employee. Campus housing is provided for the University President and is used for program and development purposes. The following officers also received a housing allowance which is included in their taxable income: Louis Mayer, Kathy L. Schulz, Michael Bruno, George Korfiatis. There is one instance in which a club membership is in the name of an individual due to club imposed membership rules. This membership is solely for business purposes to foster relationships within the New York metropolitan area for the University.
SEVERANCE PAYMENT, PART 1, LINE 4A	RANDY GREENE, FORMER VICE PRESIDENT FOR FINANCE AND TREASURER, RECEIVED A SEVERANCE PAYMENT IN THE AMOUNT OF $355,539.
Incentive Compensation, PART I, LINE 7	The Stevens Incentive Compensation Plan provides a mechanism to reward faculty, administrative leaders, and certain key staff for extraordinary performance over a period of one academic year where permitted by law. In contrast to merit-based salary increases, annual incentives do not increase base salary. Incentive compensation may be awarded upon a finding by management that an employee's work has been extraordinary and has clearly contributed toward the goals and mission of Stevens. Incentive compensation, even in cases of extraordinary performance, is not guaranteed, and decisions regarding incentive compensation will be subject to the Board of Trustees and others' determinations as to the financial results of the University and other factors not specified in the plan. Incentive compensation for faculty, staff and administration are recommended by managerial staff, are approved by the President and are within parameters established by the Board of Trustees. Incentive compensation for executive leaders is recommended by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees and approved by the full Board of Trustees as part of its consideration of this group (and as further described in Schedule O). Each year, the Human Resources Committee approves the annual performance goals for the executive leaders and will review with the President the process for determining them for each other group or sub-group of employees.

Explanation

Governing Body
and Management -
Form 990, Part
VI, Line 3

Stevens' Board of Trustees delegated to a prominent investment bank the management of Stevens' endowment pursuant to contracts which address the scope of the delegation of authority, monitoring by Stevens' management and the Board, and reporting, among other matters. The University retained Attain, LLC, to provide the services of a professional trustee to serve as the Chair of Stevens Audit Committee (as contemplated by the University's by-laws) and, during a separate period for which he did not also serve as a trustee, as Interim CFO. During calendar year 2015, the University paid Attain, LLC the amount of $117,215 for these services. This role was filled by Ronald E. Salluzzo, a Senior Partner in the Higher Education and Academic Medical Center Practice at Attain, LLC. Form 990 Review - Form 990, Part VI, Line 11B. This Form 990 was prepared by members of the finance and legal offices of the Institution together with its outside tax and accounting firm specializing in higher education. The Form 990 was then presented to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees for review and approval. Following this process and any modifications recommended by the Audit Committee, the Form 990 was presented to a meeting of the full Board of Trustees of the Institution and approved in accordance with the By-Laws of the Institution.

Return Reference	Explanation
Conflict Of Interest - Form 990, PART VI, LINE 12C	The Institution's conflict of interest policy requires ongoing compliance and self-reporting of conflicts. It also provides for completion of an annual questionnaire by all Trustees, officers and faculty. Each questionnaire is reviewed by the Office of Audit, Risk and Compliance, and questionnaires for trustees and officers are reviewed by the Office of General Counsel, all conflicts of interest are reported to the Audit Committee of the Board and to the Board of Trustees. Information disclosed in the questionnaires which indicates the presence of a conflict is investigated, discussed with relevant personnel and, if necessary, the conflict is eliminated or managed pursuant to a conflict management plan or device supervised by the Chair of the Board of Trustees or the Chair of the Audit Committee, with advice from the Office of Audit, Risk and Compliance and the General Counsel. In addition, conflicts are identified by the officers of the Institution and staff at other levels of the Institution as they arise from time to time and are referred to the Office of Audit, Risk and Compliance and the General Counsel for further analysis and resolution. Certain conflicts relating to research activities may be managed by the Director of the Office of Sponsored Programs, with advice from the Office of Audit, Risk and Compliance and the General Counsel.

Return Reference	Explanation
Compensation - Form 990, PART VI, LINES 15A & 15B	The compensation of the President and five highest compensated employees of the institution was approved by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees and the full Board of Trustees, in each case acting at meetings duly held. In addition to the President for calendar year 2015, 6 additional positions were approved: Provost and University Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, Vice Provost for Research, Dean of School of Systems Engineering, Dean of School of Engineering and Science, Dean of School of Business. With respect to the following additional positions, the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees, acting on behalf of the Board of Trustees, approved the compensation at duly held meetings of the Committee. The Board was fully informed of the Committee's actions: Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Vice President for Alumni and Development, Vice President for Facilities and Campus Operations, Vice President for Enrollment Management and Student Affairs, Vice President for Information Technology, Vice President for Communication and Marketing, Vice President for Human Resources, Chief of Staff, Dean of College of Arts and Letters, Faculty Trustee (2). All such compensation was determined based upon recommendations from the President (except with respect to the President, whose compensation is recommended by the Board of Trustees, and the Deans and faculty, whose compensation is recommended by the Provost). The University retains the services of a national professional compensation consulting firm to perform a comprehensive compensation assessment of the salaries of all members of the senior administration, including the President. This study includes a comparison of the University's salaries with a core comparison market. The results of the study are reviewed and discussed annually with the Board's Human Resource Committee and the board of trustees, as those bodies approve executive compensation. The Secretary to the Board of Trustees took contemporaneous minutes of each meeting of the Board and the Human Resources Committee at which these compensation decisions were made, except with respect to her own compensation.
