PART V - LINE 4	The League maintains three classes of net assets, as follows: Unrestricted net assets consisting of funds available for operations and general improvements, Board designated purposes and specific capital improvements. Temporarily restricted net assets consist of funds that are earmarked for improvements to be used by the Library. Permanently restricted net assets (the Walter T. Bradley Trust) are held by another entity indefinitely. The income from the assets in the Trust is used to support the League's library. Because the League receives a perpetual stream of income from the Bradley Trust, an asset entitled "Funds Held in Trust by Others" has been recorded at its market value. Fluctuations in the market value are recorded as a change in permanently restricted net assets.
