WellSpan Philhaven's inpatient psychiatric program is available to individuals who are in most severe distress and/or danger of harming themselves or others. The inpatient program provides a 24-hour a day therapeutic milieu and interventions that serve to stabilize acute psychiatric symptoms. Services are provided to children and adolescents ages three to eighteen and adults over eighteen years of age. Typical length of stay is approximately eleven days for both adults and children/adolescents. Additionally, Philhaven offers extended acute psychiatric inpatient services for adults that require long-term intensive interventions to stabilize their symptoms. Once behavioral stabilization is achieved, the patient is then prepared for transition to the next appropriate level of care. WellSpan Philhaven's children's and adolescents' Behavioral Health Rehabilitation Services (BHRS) program includes both community based and after school services. The goal of all BHRS services is to enhance the child's or adolescent's ability to function emotionally, socially and behaviorally. Individualized interventions serve to facilitate youth's behavioral stabilization and emotional growth. Mental health specialists help youth learn skills and coping strategies which enable the youth to prevent deterioration and more restrictive services. Afterschool services are provided Monday through Friday after school for children ages six to twelve years. Community based services are provided in schools and homes by trained therapeutic support staff, mobile therapists and behavioral specialist consultants. The outpatient program provides the least restrictive type of mental health treatment available at WellSpan Philhaven. Staff who are professionally trained in psychiatry, psychology, social work and counseling strive to provide outpatient services to clients in a conscientious and caring manner as they work toward their therapeutic goals. WellSpan Philhaven strives to provide individuals and their families with the skills and resources necessary to live healthy, fulfilled lives within their homes and communities. Specific services offered include evaluations and assessments, psychiatric medication management, psychiatric consultation, individual therapy, family therapy, group therapy and marriage counseling. Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI - Explanation Of How Organization Furthers Its Exempt Purpose	As the largest behavioral health provider in southcentral Pennsylvania, WellSpan-Philhaven is committed to transforming care by integrating behavioral and physical health services in the primary care setting, training hundreds of community members in mental health first aid, and increasing awareness of and prevention opportunities for key behavioral health issues. WellSpan-Philhaven also plays leadership roles on community behavioral health-related task forces including Lets Talk Lancaster¹, the Lebanon County Suicide Prevention Task Force, and multiple county-level opioid prevention committees. Care transformation both in the practice setting and the surrounding community is occurring through the recent affiliation between Philhaven and WellSpan Health. Since its integration with WellSpan Health, WellSpan-Philhaven has also participated in system-wide initiatives to address the shared community health priorities of depression (mental health) and adult overweight/obesity. The Feeling Blue depression awareness campaign (www.feeling-blue.com) originated as a resource for York and Adams County adults suffering from mild depression. In 2016, Feeling Blue expanded to Lebanon County and continues to be a valuable resource for its community members. WellSpan-Good Samaritan Hospital also implemented the regional 10Lb Throwdown initiative, a 10-week community challenge that encourages participants to lose or maintain a healthy weight through healthier eating and increased physical activity. The initiative was created to address the growing issue of adult overweight/obesity, and utilizes a core website (www.10poundthrowdown.com) on which may be found an online weight tracker, physical activity program (Make the Most of the Coast), and tips that promote a healthier lifestyle. More than 1900 community members across three southcentral Pennsylvania counties Adams, Lancaster, Lebanon, and York participated in the 2016 iteration of the 10Lb Throwdown program. Additional examples of how WellSpan-Philhaven has advanced behavioral health and fulfilled its community mission across southcentral Pennsylvania may be found in the 2016 WellSpan Community Benefit Report available online at www.wellspan.org.

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI - Affiliated Health Care System Roles and Promotion	After its affiliation with WellSpan Health, a regional health care system, WellSpan-Philhaven adopted the current CHNA conducted by WellSpan, started in 2014 and finalized in 2015. This CHNA enabled WellSpan-Philhaven to access primary data collected across its multiple county service area, share it with key community, hospital and system leaders, and integrate it into the system-wide and entity-level planning processes. Through the consulting support of the Floyd Institute for Public Policy at Franklin and Marshall College, a representative sample of 3422 adults across the four-county region (769 Adams County, 729 Lancaster, 896 Lebanon, and 1028 York) were interviewed between two time periods: October 27-December 12, 2014 and February 23-May 5, 2015, using survey questions derived from the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System (BRFSS), a validated survey tool utilized by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). BRFSS questions were organized into four categories: healthcare access, behavioral risk, health conditions, and prevention behaviors and context. Supplemental secondary data from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) annual County Health Rankings and from the Pennsylvania Department of Health was compiled and integrated into the 2015 CHNA. Data collected and analyzed by the Floyd Institute for Public Policy included breakdowns by age, gender, geographic area, race/ethnicity, and income level, and enabled the development of charts/graphs focused on: quantity of residents affected, health risks and disability-adjusted life years, correlates of obesity and depression (two significant health priorities), health disparities, and, social determinants of health impact. This information is included in the 2015 Community Health Needs Assessment Summary Report available at www.wellspan.org. In 2015, CHNA results and related priorities identified across the region were shared with the system-wide Planning Committee at WellSpan Health. This Committee is comprised of community members and leaders that represent each of WellSpan's primary entities and service areas, in addition to corporate leadership. Planning Committee members reviewed the CHNA data and adopted the community priorities of adult overweight/obesity and depression/mental health while also identifying two additional priorities: access related to gaps in care caused by high-deductible insurance plans and the emerging opioid misuse and abuse issue facing the community. These priorities and associated data were subsequently presented to WellSpan-Philhaven leadership for their adoption. CHNA results were made available to the public on the WellSpan Health (www.wellspan.org) website, and may also be obtained upon request. WellSpan Health is an integrated health system serving the communities of southcentral Pennsylvania and northern Maryland. As a community-based, not-for-profit organization, WellSpan is dedicated to improving the health and well-being of the people it serves. WellSpan will assume a leadership role and develop partnerships with other organizations to improve access to coordinated, high-quality, cost-effective health care services, educate the health care providers of tomorrow, promote healthy lifestyles and lifelong wellness, and make its local communities healthier, more desirable places to live, work, and play. WellSpan Philhaven works with other parts of the system to provide a comprehensive approach to meeting community needs. WellSpan Health includes WellSpan Gettysburg Hospital, WellSpan York Hospital, WellSpan Surgery and Rehabilitation Hospital, WellSpan Ephrata Community Hospital, WellSpan Good Samaritan Hospital, WellSpan Philhaven, Apple Hill Surgical Center, WellSpan VNA Home Health, WellSpan Medical Group, Northern Lancaster County Medical Group, Physician Specialists of Northern Lancaster County Medical Group, Good Samaritan Physician Services, WellSpan Population Health Services, WellSpan Pharmacy, Gettysburg Hospital Foundation, York Health Foundation, Ephrata Community Health Foundation, Good Samaritan Health Services Foundation, WellSpan Provider Network, GSH Services, and WellSpan Medical Equipment. Philhaven's community benefit report is contained in a report prepared by their parent organization, WellSpan Health. See Attached Federal Supplemental Information: WellSpan Health - 2016 Community Benefit Report.
