1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Haverford College is committed to providing a liberal arts education in the broadest sense. This education, based on a rich academic curriculum at its core, is distinguished by a commitment to excellence and a concern for individual growth. Haverford has chosen to remain small and to foster a close student/faculty relationship to achieve these objectives. The College's rigorous academic program is flexible in form and content to meet the needs of individual students, and rests on the assumption that the able students who come here will use their capacities fully. Haverford's faculty is noted for its strength in both scholarship and teaching, and its members expect to transmit to students their enthusiasm and high standards. The faculty members are teaching at an undergraduate college of arts and sciences by choice, and they expect to learn, as well as to teach, in this close relationship with undergraduates.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	Special collections of art and historical treasures serve to advance scholarship and to further teaching, research and service. Special collections range from Quaker collections to College archives to rare manuscripts to fine art assets. The Quaker collection consists of manuscripts as well as numerous photographs, artworks, artifacts, furniture and films. The College archives include American and English literature, history, and politics. Today, the collections of fine art encompasses three areas: material in support of the College curricula, material that documents the College's history, and material that documents the history of Quakerism.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The College spends a prudent amount of its endowment income annually to support the educational mission of the College in accordance with donor restrictions and internal designations. In 2016, College Administration completed a comprehensive review of net asset balances and restrictions, including donor documentation for gifts and endowments to confirm or adjust restrictions. This review, completed in early December 2016, identified certain errors occurring over a number of prior years, resulting in the College restating the June 30, 2015 audited financials statements and restating the endowment rollforward shown in Part V line 1 above.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The College evaluates how uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in the financial statements. No adjustments to the financial statements were required as a result of the evaluation. The College will continue to monitor and evaluate its unrelated business income activity.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	Changes in contributions receivable $(3,561,265), Federal indirect cost recovery $224,499, Financial Aid $(26,362,706)

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	The procedures to monitor College scholarships (grant aid) awarded to nonresident aliens are the same procedures as scholarships awarded to the citizens of the United States. Haverford College scholarships are based solely on need. The College does not award any grants based upon merit. Applicants can be asked to file the College Board Profile and the FAFSA. If eligible for federal aid, parent and student personal and business tax returns must also be provided. Supplements for businesses and forms for non-custodial parents may also be required based on circumstances. Students may appeal the award decisions to the Financial Aid Committee made up of the Vice President and Dean of Admission and Financial Aid, the Dean of the College, and the Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance. Haverford scholarships are credited directly to the student's account for tuition, room, board, fees and other billed charges.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Haverford College scholarships are based solely on need. The College does not award any grant aid based on merit. Applicants can be asked to file the College Board Profile and the FAFSA. If eligible for federal aid, parent and student personal and business tax returns must be provided. Supplements for businesses and forms for non-custodial parents may also be required based on circumstances. Students may appeal award decisions to the Financial Aid committee made up of the Vice President and Dean of Admission and Financial Aid, the Dean of the College and the Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance. Haverford scholarships are credited directly to the student's account for tuition, room, board, fees and other billed charges. Supplemental Education Opportunity Grants (SEOG) are awarded based on family contribution. Eligibility is determined by the FAFSA and regulations determined by the U.S. Department of Education. Per the Department of Education regulations, students who receive Pell grants must be provided FSEOG funds first. If the student is selected to receive these awards other verification forms may be required including the Verification Statement, parent and student tax returns, and non-tax filer statements. FSEOG awards are credited directly to the student's account for tuition, room, board and other billed charges. FSEOG awards are audited annually by the College's outside auditors in conjunction with the A-133 federal funds audit. Student internships are awarded through an application and committee review process. The internship awards are paid directly to the student for travel, room, board and other fees. This assistance enables the students to engage in unpaid internships in a variety of domestic and international locations. Some of the areas of study include Humanities, Sciences, Global Citizenship and Entrepreneurship.

VI, Section A,
Line 6

The Corporation of Haverford College has one class of members who may include any member of the Religious Society of Friends, anyone who has served as President of the College or as a member of the Board of Managers for at least six consecutive years. In addition, the President of the College, the Clerk, the Assistant Clerk, and the Secretary of the Corporation, and four members of the Board of Managers nominated by the Board of Managers shall be members of the Corporation so long as they hold such positions. The Corporation may permit, in exceptional cases, persons not members of a monthly meeting yet grounded in the faith and practice of Friends to be treated as members of the Religious Society of Friends.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a	The Corporation formally elects members of the Board, including those nominated by the Corporation, by the Board and by the Alumni Association. The Corporation makes any amendments to the bylaws. The Corporation seeks, by advice and example, to strengthen and enrich Haverford's Quaker heritage. The Board has responsibility for all aspects of the operation and management of the College.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The College provides the Form 990 to the Audit Committee of the Board for review and discussion prior to its further dissemination to the Board. The Form 990 is made available to the full Board of Managers prior to its filing. Consistent with the College's long standing commitment to honor the requests from donors that wish to philanthropically support the College anonymously, Schedule B is redacted, with names and addresses excluded, prior to distribution to the Audit Committee and to the full Board. However, two Board members (the Chair of the Audit Committee and the Chair of the Nominations and Governance Committee) plus three College Officers (the President, the Vice President of Institutional Advancement, and the Senior Vice President) will receive the entire Form 990, including an unredacted Schedule B and thereby see the complete Form 990, including all schedules.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Each year a conflict of interest questionnaire is handed out and sent electronically to Board members, officers and key employees. The President's Office tracks and ensure compliance with completing and submitting the Conflict of Interest questionnaire.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The President's compensation is determined after an annual review by the Board's Committee on Presidential Compensation and Review. The review along with private college executive compensation surveys help determine the President's salary. The President reports to the Board Committee information regarding the annual process for determining the compensation of other officers (Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance, Vice President for Institutional Advancement, Provost, Dean of the College, Vice President and Dean of Admission and Financial Aid, Chief Information Officer and Chief Investment Officer). The Presidential Review Committee reports on both of these procedures to the Board in executive session.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	The College's financial statements and Conflict of Interest Policy are available to the general public through our website, Guidestar's website, and upon request. Currently the College does not publish governing documents, however, these are available upon request.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XI, Line 8	In 2016, College Administration completed a comprehensive review of accumulated depreciation as well as net asset balances and restrictions, including donor documentation for gifts and endowments to confirm or adjust restrictions. This review, completed in early December 2016, identified certain errors occurring over a number of prior years, resulting in the College restating the June 30, 2015 audited financial statements. The total restatement of the balance sheet is an increase of $2,797,368.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part XI, Line 9	Change in contributions receivable $(3,561,265), Grants paid from donor advised fund $10,083, Related org, UK Fdn, income $(148,370), and EOY assets $3,638
