Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	All sitting Board Members and Officers are required annually to complete and sign a conflict of interest questionnaire which is reviewed by the CFO and any discrepancies are discussed with the President, VP HR and the Finance and Audit Committee. Board members and Officers are requested to complete 11 questions that cover various possible conflicts of interest, including those required to be disclosed in the Form 990. This process is facilitated by an on-line software tool. All disclosed conflicts are reviewed by management and, if necessary professional tax preparer, to ensure an appropriate response on the Form 990. As a condition of hire, and annually thereafter, all full-time and part-time employees are required to read and sign a Confidentiality & Conflict of Interest Agreement. If a conflict of interest is identified, the V P - HR, V P - CFO, and all other parties involved will discuss the issue and will a Document the controls that will be followed to achieve compliance, or b Terminate the arrangement if sufficient controls cannot be put into place to achieve compliance. The signed agreement will be placed in the employee's personnel file. Employees who improperly use or disclose confidential business information or who fail to disclose a conflict of interest from which he/she or a member of his/her family as defined above could gain substantial benefit will be subject to corrective action, up to and including immediate termination of employment, even if they do not actually benefit from disclosure of the information or lack of disclosure of a conflict of interest. Board and committee members who have a conflict of interest which cannot be mitigated, will be reviewed for possible replacement from the Board or Committee.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Process to establish compensation of top management official	Lake Forest Graduate School of Management's (LFGSM) Executive Committee of the Board of Directors requests an external independent review of compensation and benefits provided to the School's "Interested Persons" (disqualified individuals) to assist the Committee in its assessment of the reasonableness of their compensation compared to market data assembled by an independent third party. The independent third party's processes for collecting and assembling market data is consistent with the Rebuttable Presumption Checklist used by the Internal Revenue Service in conducting compensation reviews as well as contemporary compensation practices. All market data are assembled from reputable, commercially-available surveys, as well as peer review from IRS Form 990 and submissions and then indexed to the Chicago metro area. The study report presents an overview of the total cash and benefits provided to the leadership staff of comparable not-for-profit colleges and universities. The last review of compensation took place in 2016 with the assistance of an external compensation firm.
