Process for determining compensation	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a and 15b The organization did not compensate its executives, but, rather, the executives received compensation from a related organization. Accordingly, the organization's parent company determines the executive compensation paid to its executives in the following manner prescribed in the IRS regulations. Executive compensation packages are determined by a committee of the board that is composed entirely of board members who have no conflict of interest. The committee acquires credible comparability market data concerning the compensation packages of similarly situated executives. The committee carefully reviews that data, the executive's performance and the proposed compensation packages during the decision making process. The committee memorializes its deliberations in detailed minutes reviewed and adopted at the next-following meeting. The committee seeks an opinion of counsel that it has met the requirements of the IRS intermediate sanctions regulations. This process is used to determine the compensation packages for all management employees from the vice president level and up.
