Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Foundation acts as an agent for and on behalf of donors, receiving assets from the donors and agreeing to use those assets on behalf of, or transfer those assets, the return on investment of those assets, or both to the designated beneficiaries. The Foundation also manages the investments of certain funds for other Catholic organizations within the Diocese.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is exempt from federal income tax as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and from state income tax pursuant to Florida law. The Foundation is further classified as a public charity and not a private foundation for federal tax purposes. The Foundation has not incurred unrelated business income taxes. As a result, no income tax provision or liability has been provided for in the accompanying financial statements. The Foundation has not taken any material uncertain tax positions for which the associated tax benefits may not be recognized under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Federal and state tax authorities may generally examine the Foundation's income tax positions or (if applicable) returns for periods of approximately three to six years.
