college students across Arizona, thousands of additional students via classroom lectures, and growing numbers of WWII, Korea, Vietnam, Cold War, Iraq & Afghanistan veterans each year

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 Chapter Program - Teachers volunteer as VHP Chapter Advisors at their school, to help facilitate our after-school oral history project-based learning VHP students conduct & videotape veteran interviews, write essays documenting the veterans' story, conduct related historical research, and obtain the veterans' copy approval Chapters utilize design software and cloud technology to assemble the final essays and collaborate in the publication of regional editions of our hardbound book, Since You Asked (SYA) The videotaped interviews and the books become a permanent contribution to the Library of Congress VHP student authors are the single largest contributors to this Congressional program, with 1,228 veteran stories by 1,180 youth Chapters engage with their communities in the organization of regional community events to honor their veteran partners and present the completed SYA book for signing and distribution Veterans describe the process as "healing" and "cathartic" and ninety-percent say that the program enabled them to begin a dialogue with their family about their military experience Students are prepared for continued academic and professional success through the development of listening, writing, critical thinking, collaboration, technology and public speaking skills One hundred percent of participating students graduate from high school and ninety-five percent continue on to college or military service

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 Veteran Lecture Series - Veterans continue to share first person historical accounts and lessons of personal responsibility through in-school oral history lectures so that additional students can benefit from the enriched educational experience

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 Civic Engagement Opportunities- Throughout the year VHP chapters work with veteran organizations statewide in support of Veterans Day and Memorial Day celebrations, civic events, community service activities and presentations on lessons learned through the VHP experience
