FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 12C	The Secretary of the corporation shall distribute annually to all directors, officers and key employees (as identified by the corporation), a form soliciting the disclosure of all conflicts of interest, including specific information concerning the terms of any contract or transaction with the corporation and whether the process for approval set forth in this policy was used. Such disclosure form may require disclosure of other relationships that may not constitute an actual conflict of interest, but which are required to be disclosed in order for the corporation to comply with its annual reporting requirements. An employee of the corporation with a potential conflict of interest in a particular matter shall promptly and fully disclose the potential conflict to his supervisor. The employee shall thereafter refrain from participating in deliberations and discussion, as well as any decisions, relating to the matter and follow the direction of the supervisor as to how the corporation decisions which are the subject of the conflict will be determined. The board chair shall be responsible for determining the proper way for the corporation to handle corporation decisions which involve unresolved employee conflicts of interest. FORM 990, PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 15	It is the policy of the corporation to pay no more than reasonable compensation for personal services rendered to the corporation by officers and employees. The directors of the corporation shall not receive compensation for fulfilling their duties as directors, although directors may be reimbursed for actual out-of-pocket expenses which they incur in order to fulfill their duties as directors. Expenses of spouses will not be reimbursed by the corporation unless the expenses are necessary to achieve a corporation purpose. The board of directors must approve in advance the amount of all compensation for officers of the corporation. Before approving the compensation of an officer, the board shall determine that the total compensation to be provided by the corporation to the officer is reasonable in amount in light of the position, responsibility and qualification of the officer for the position held, including the result of an evaluation of the officer's prior performance for the corporation, if applicable. In making the determination, the board shall consider total compensation to include the salary and the value of all benefits provided by the corporation to the individual in payment for services. At the time of the discussion and decision concerning an officer's compensation, the officer should not be present in the meeting. The board shall obtain and consider appropriate data concerning comparable compensation paid to similar officers in like circumstances. The board shall set forth the basis for its decisions with respect to compensation in the minutes of the meeting at which the decisions are made, including the conclusions of the evaluation and the basis for determining that the individual's compensation was reasonable in light of the evaluation and the comparability data. For other key employees, compensation is determined by the executive director after review of comparability data, including a salary survey. The information gathered and factors considered in arriving at the compensation is documented in the employees' personnel file. This process is performed on an annual basis.
