Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The University is a qualifying organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and is, therefore, exempt from income taxes under the IRC Section 501(a) on its normal operations. However, the University is taxed on other unrelated income, if any. The University follows FASB guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the University may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the University, the continued tax-exempt status of bonds issued by the University, and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. At June 30, 2016 and 2015, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities. The University files Forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the required states. With few exceptions, the University is no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2012.

Schedule E, Part I, Line 3	See Part II of Schedule E
Schedule E, Part I, Line 6	The University participates in the Federal Financial Aid program administered by the Department of Education as well as grant programs from the various states the University operates in
Schedule E, Part 1 Line 3	Antioch University, formerly known as Antioch College, has a proud history of being one of the first institutions in the mid 1850's to admit African Americans into the same academic programs as whites. It is also notably the alma mater of Coretta Scott King and others who worked for the civil rights movements of the 1960's. Shortly after its incorporation in 1852, it amended its articles of incorporation to provide that, "nor shall religious or theological opinions of any kind or considerations of race, creed, or national origin ever be used as a basis for excluding a person from its benefits." The University has since expanded its policy of nondiscrimination requiring that "Antioch provides equal opportunity for all qualified applicants and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, ancestry, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, family status or disability in matters affecting employment or in providing access to programs." It now includes its nondiscrimination policy statement in all brochures and other recruitment materials as well as in the course catalog. Finally, the policy is clearly posted on the website of each University campus and program. Further, as per section 4 03 paragraph c, the University currently enrolls students of racial minorities in meaningful numbers. Per section 4 03 paragraph b of Rev Proc 75-50, 1975-2 CB 587, the University is not required to further annually publish its nondiscriminatory policy in the local community because it draws a substantial percentage of its students from a nationwide or large geographical area, as well as internationally.
