Facts And Circumstances Test

Part IV Section D Line 2 The organization contacts the supported organization by letter each year informing it of the amount of support available for the year. The supported organization then selects the recipients based on the organization's grant requirements, awards the grant and reports to the organization the names of the scholarship recipients and the amounts awarded.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V Section E Line 2,5 6	The organization has an undistributed amount. The failure to distribute was due to a clerical error when calculating the distributable amount using an incorrect valuation of the assets. The failure was discovered by the CPA Paid Preparer during the preparation of this form and was reported to the organization immediately. The organization expects to meet the distribution requirement within 180 days after the organization is first able to distribute the undistributable amount.
