1 Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The organization's mission is to solicit and receive contributions and grants from the general public and to hold, invest, and administer these funds and pay expenditures for the benefit of the University of Maryland in Baltimore and to serve in an advisory role to its president

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a	(Code) (Expenses $ 16,257,244 including grants of $ 12,304,315) (Revenue $ 580,640)
Medicine The UMB Foundation supports academic programs, clinical activities and research in the University of Maryland School of Medicine (UMSOM). Established in 1807, UMSOM is the first public and fifth oldest medical school in the U.S. and the first to institute a residency training program. In 2016, the UMSOM graduated a total of 345 students with medical, allied health or graduate degrees. Of the graduating students, 159 received their medical degrees and joined the ranks of more than 8,000 living alumni. A significant number, 42-percent, have chosen to continue their training in primary care fields. This past year, the UMSOM admitted another class of students with exceptional academic credentials, which included 161 new medical students and another 42 students in medical graduate programs. A leader in biomedical research, the UMSOM secured more than $399.3 million in grants and contract support in FY 2016. According to the latest data from the Association of American Medical Colleges, the UMSOM ranks 8th among all 86 public medical schools and 25th among all 144 public and private medical schools in terms of grant and contract expenditures. More than half of the practicing physicians in Maryland receive their training at the UMSOM or its clinical partner, the University of Maryland Medical Center. The UMSOM is committed to the education and training of MD, PhD, graduate, physical therapy and rehabilitation science and medical research technology students.

4b	(Code) (Expenses $ 3,019,438 including grants of $ 2,254,161) (Revenue $ 6,740)
Law The UMB Foundation supports academic programs and clinical and research activities in the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law (Maryland Carey Law). Established in 1816, Maryland Carey Law began regular instruction in 1824. It is the third oldest law school in the nation. The innovative academic and specialty programs have garnered national and international recognition. The Maryland Carey Law's experiential programs are among the most extensive in the country, including the nationally ranked Clinical Law Program, which offers more than 100,000 hours of free legal services to the state of Maryland and has been in existence for more than 40 years. Interdisciplinary specialty programs are offered in environmental law and health care. Other programs include advocacy, alternative dispute resolution, business law, intellectual property law and international and comparative law. The Maryland Carey Law seeks to promote a more just society by educating outstanding lawyers and leaders, advance the understanding of law and legal institutions and enhance access to justice. Excellence in teaching prepares students for leadership and professional success in a wide range of careers and promotes in both students and faculty the highest standard of public and professional service.

4c	(Code) (Expenses $ 1,575,659 including grants of $ 1,188,407) (Revenue $ 1,050)
Social Work The UMB Foundation supports academic programs, research and community work at the University of Maryland School of Social Work (SSW). SSW's mission is to develop leaders and scholars to advance the well-being of populations and communities at risk. SSW is a highly-ranked institution that produces outstanding social workers whose practice advances the well-being of all the people they serve. U.S. News & World Report ranks the school 16th (top 8%) in their list of social work graduate schools in America. The School serves society through the development of knowledge in education, research, scholarship, service innovation, and advocacy. SSW was created in 1961 and has grown to become one of the largest and most respected schools of social work in America. Part of a public university in a diversified state and region, the school promotes research on social work services and social and economic justice in all of its activities. SSW students provide 500,000 hours of social work services a year within the State of Maryland and surrounding communities. The student body concentration breakout is generally 80% clinical and 20% macro (management & community organization), the largest macro concentration program in the country. In addition to the school's academic side, SSW has multiple community service programs such as SWCOS (Social Work Community Outreach Services), which allows students to provide their field service to small non-profits throughout the region and then connect this work back to research. The SSW also has more than $35M in annual research and training grants.

Nursing The University of Maryland School of Nursing (UMSON) was founded in 1889 and is one of the oldest and largest nursing schools in the nation. The mission of the school is to shape the profession of nursing by developing nurse leaders in education, research, and practice through excellent baccalaureate, graduate, and continuing education programs, cutting edge science and research, and an innovative clinical enterprise. With an average annual enrollment of more than 1,700 students, UMSON is the largest nursing school in Maryland and produces 41% of the state's professional nurse workforce. Nearly 72% of the 146 faculty members hold doctoral degrees and are nationally recognized experts in teaching, research, and clinical practice, more than 30% are Fellows of the American Academy of Nursing. UMSON has an excellent record of recruiting and retaining a diverse student population: currently 12% of students are male and 40% reflect minority/underrepresented populations, exceeding national averages. More than 22,000 living alumni currently carry on the UMSON tradition of excellence in 50 states and 29 countries. UMSON has students on two campuses - in Baltimore on the Founding Campus of the University of Maryland and in Rockville at the Universities at Shady Grove. US News & World Report has ranked UMSON as #8 among all accredited graduate nursing programs out of more than 750 schools of nursing nationwide. UMSON's Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) program is ranked as #5 in the US News & World Report's inaugural DNP rankings.
