The traditional undergraduate program consists of "traditional" students attending school as their primary activity, mostly full-time during the day-time hours. Programs include 59 academic majors, 9 pre-professional programs, including pre-medicine and pre-law, teacher licensure in 10 areas, and more than a dozen international exchange study programs in a number of countries. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016, there were 1,522 students enrolled in the undergraduate program. Also available is the professionally-staffed PLUS Program for students with learning disabilities.

4b

The Graduate and Continuing Studies program consists of programs designed for those seeking post-graduate certification or those who have spent more than two years since completing any secondary or post-secondary work. Many balance their study with work and family responsibilities. Programs offered include Master of Arts in Education, with specializations, Master of Arts in Teaching, with specializations, Master of Information Strategy, Systems and Technology, Adult Degree Completion (Muskingum Adult Program) offering certificate programs as well as bachelor of arts, bachelor of science and bachelor of science, in nursing degrees. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2016, 1,858 students were enrolled in the graduate and continuing studies program.

Reference*ExplanationForm 990, Part
VI, Section B,
Line 11A

An independent tax preparation firm is engaged to assist in reviewing the Form 990 prepared by the University business office. University management reviews the Form 990 for completeness and accuracy. Prior to filing, management presents the Form 990 to the Officers, Audit Committee and Chairman of the Finance and Management Committee of the board of trustees. After approval by the Audit committee the return is reviewed by the full board. Form 990 is reviewed and signed by the vice president for business and finance.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12C	Under the University's conflict of interest policy, all trustees, officers, and key employees are required to file annual statements of disclosure. The president of the University and chair of the board review s those statements for potential conflicts. Any actual or possible conflict of interest must be disclosed to the officers of the board of trustees and either the chair of the board's finance and management committee or another designee of the board's chair. After disclosure and discussion with the board officers, the board officers determine w hether a conflict of interest exists. The interested person is not present for these determinations. The board officers shall then determine if further action regarding the transaction or arrangement is necessary, including the potential solicitation of alternative transactions or arrangements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The compensation of all officers of the University is reviewed and approved annually by the executive committee of the board of trustees. Salary data is gathered from peer institutions to benchmark all officer compensation on an annual basis. Compensation is set within the constraints of the board of trustees' approved operating budget and salary pool. This process was last undertaken for the fiscal year 2016. The executive committee receives a report from the chairman on the president's compensation in relation to the president's long-term contract, including the opinion that the president's compensation and that of other officers is consistent with compensation data reported by peer colleges and universities.
