Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	The Executive Committee is authorized to act in emergency or unforeseen situations and between meetings of the board of directors. The executive committee performs the annual evaluation of the President/CEO, including compensation.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The process of reviewing the Form 990 includes a detailed review of the form and required schedules by the organization's CFO and CEO. Each voting member of the governing body receives for review the Form 990 including required schedules, as ultimately filed with the IRS, prior to filing.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually each member of the Board of Directors, the Officers, and Key Employees are required to sign a Conflict of Interest Statement. The board of director's written conflict of interest policy is regularly and consistently monitored and compliance enforced by the Chairman and Secretary of the Corporation. The scope of this policy includes all board of directors. The policy is in place to prevent any detriment to Meridian which could arise out of a duality of interest or potential conflict of interest and provide definitions and procedures to be taken in such event. The covered persons are to provide full disclosure of any such potential conflict to the Secretary of the Corporation through an annual reporting procedure and also by full disclosure of the conflict at the time the interest becomes a matter of Board action. Any board member having a duality of interest shall not vote or use his/her personal influence on any matter which may involve a conflict between his/her interest and those of Meridian. The conflict is documented in the minutes of the meeting.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Compensation for officers. Meridian Health Services Board has a process in place to determine total compensation for its' President/CEO and key executive staff. Compensation is determined by the Executive Committee per Board Bylaws with board approved executive compensation guidelines. The guidelines for total compensation includes base salary, benefits and severance. The process includes the use of a written employment contract and an independent compensation consultant providing a review of peer health care organizations for total compensation.
