Explanation: We filed by paper in a timely manner. The paper form was submitted September 9, 2016. On November 21, 2016, we received a notice from the IRS that we may need to file the return electronically. The electronic form was submitted within 48 hours of the receipt of that notification. The only reason we missed the deadline was because we were unaware of the electronic filing requirement. Once we became aware, we responded as soon as possible. Because of these circumstances, we feel justified in requesting that no penalty be imposed.
