| Part I, Line 2   | Grant funds are distributed monthly from Compassion's corporate office to Compassion field offices which are located outside the United States. Compassion controls the donated funds. These offices employ professional accounting staff. Field offices grant these funds to the over 6,900 partner churches worldwide and beneficiaries. The use of grant funds at the partner church level is monitored by monthly reporting to the field offices. The Compassion field offices monitor compliance of the use of all grant funds with program standards and conducts periodic site visits, which includes audits. Field offices submit financial reports monthly to the corporate office. Field offices undergo internal audits on a periodic basis. A majority are audited externally as well. Compassion has written agreements with grant recipients as to the purpose of the funding. Compassion has processes where requests for additional grant funding are reviewed, approved and funded. Compassion reserves the right to withhold future grants and/or terminate partnerships when Compassion deems necessary. Program Service funds are distributed monthly from Compassion's corporate office to field offices. The field offices manage these funds and the program services provided to the beneficiaries. Field offices report to corporate on the use of program service funds each month and are subject to periodic internal audits. Advocacy grants are selected initially through specific criteria based on global strategy. Compassion seeks advocacy opportunities that are aligned with Compassion's mission and purpose. These grants are monitored and reviewed each year. |
