Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds	Grants and scholarships are awarded to students who apply for financial assistance at Wheaton College for Billy Graham Center programs. Grant recipients are based on financial need. All funds are used for tuition and books and living expenses at Wheaton College. This process is administered and monitored by the financial aid office at the College. Grants are also provided to Wheaton College, a related tax-exempt organization in support of the college's operations. The close operational relationship the filing organization maintains with the college allows the Billy Graham Center to monitor and ensure grant funds are used for their intended purpose.
