Answer to Part IV, Sec. B, Ques. 1

The supported organization, Waukesha County Technical College (WCTC) does not have the power to elect a majority to the organization's board of directors. However as the organization's mission is to support WCTC and its students the leaders of both organization work closely to insure that this supporting organization is directing its activities to achieve the goals that WCTC develops. Along with this WCTC staff and stakeholders comprise a minority of the board at all times as well as WCTC staff acts as fiscal agent for the organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Question 11A

Upon completion of the Form 990 and accompanying schedules, the documents are made available to all members board of directors for their review, discussion and input. Changes are made as necessary before the Form 990 is signed and submitted.

Form 990, Part VI, Question 12c

The organization maintains a written conflict of interest policy wherein all members and key employees disclose interests that could give rise to conflicts or state the lack thereof. The statement is signed by each individual and a copy is retained by the organization. The policy is reviewed and discussed annually as part of a regular meeting of the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Question 15b

The compensation of the organization's president is documented in a written employment agreement and executed by the board president and key employee. Compensation is reviewed annually by the organization's executive committee of the the board of directors. For purposes of determining a fair market level of compensation, the committee uses market data of wages and benefits of comparable organizations and positions. The wage and benefit levels are reviewed, discussed and voted upon in committee.
