Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is required to assess whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination on the technical merits of the position assuming the taxing authority has full knowledge of all information. If the tax position does not meet the more likely than not recognition threshold, the benefit of that position is not recognized in the financial statements. The Organization has determined there are no amounts to record as assets or liabilities related to uncertain tax positions.

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Procedures to monitor the use of grants include on-site monitoring visits during the year, review of annual audit reports of the grantees, and constant communication with grantees. On-site visits include reviews of files and are compared with information entered in the shared database, procedural reviews and discussions with management. Program personnel review activity of the grant recipients on an on-going basis by reviewing activity in the shared database and review of various financial and program reports required of the grantees. Grants to individuals require authorization by case managers and supporting documentation prior to payment being made. There are a large amount of grants to individuals that are to pay for tuition and books, these are normally paid directly to the institution and the organization is listed on account.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The return is provided to the Finance Director and CEO/Executive Director for review. In turn, the draft is then provided to members of the Executive Committee, which consists of voting members, for review before filing with the Internal Revenue Service.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All officers, directors, key employees, and employees of Workforce Development Board of South Central Wisconsin are covered under the organization's conflict of interest policy. Officers, Directors, key employees, and employees are to disclose interest that may lead to a conflict and are required to sign a conflict of interest statement annually. The interested party must fully disclose any potential conflicts and completely recuse him/herself from the discussion and any related vote.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Executive Committee annually conducts an evaluation of the CEO/Executive Director and approves compensation as part of the annual budget process which requires a vote of the Executive Committee. The Board has utilized salary survey information compiled by the State of Wisconsin specially for Workforce Development Board key employees. This study was last conducted in 2016. The CEO/Executive Director follows the same process for the other executive positions within the organization. A vote by the Executive Committee is required for all compensation included within the corporate budget.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
