Sexual Violence Justice Institute (SVJI)The Sexual Violence Justice Institute is a project of the Minnesota Coalition Against Sexual Assault that promotes justice for victims of sexual violence through collaboration, leadership, training, and technical assistance. SVJI guides multidisciplinary teams and allied professionals to develop effective and victim-centered responses to sexual assault, with a primary focus on improving the criminal justice system response. SVJI works closely with 12 Minnesota Sexual Assault Multidisciplinary Action Response Teams (SMARTs) to improve the responses to victims in local communities. The Institute is a national technical assistance resource to Sexual Assault Response Teams (SARTs) across the country. We train law enforcement, prosecutors, advocates, health care professionals, and other system practitioners on best practices when responding to sexual violence. We host the bi-annual National Institute for SART leaders, quarterly webinars and offer ongoing customized technical assistance. Additionally, we develop resources and toolkits for SART teams to use to create just and equitable responses to sexual violence.

Prevention ProgramsMinnesota Coalition Against Sexual Assault works to make the prevention of sexual violence a priority in Minnesota. We utilize three key strategies: Providing training and technical assistance to build statewide capacity to prevent sexual violence, Influencing policies and practices at both the state and local level, and mobilizing community members to help make the prevention of sexual violence an urgent priority. Key highlights of prevention activities include: -Community Primary Prevention Partnership grants to three community based sexual assault advocacy agencies. These funds are used to support local partnerships that promote healthy relationship skills for students in middle and high school as well as college. -Convene Minnesota Campus Sexual Violence Prevention Summit at Metro State University in Saint Paul. The 2016 Summit brought together teams of staff from over 55 colleges to learn about effective policies, practices and programs to respond to and prevent sexual violence. -Provide training on evidence based programs, such as Safe Dates and Green Dot to leaders from throughout the state who bring these programs to their communities. In 2016, Minnesota Coalition Against Sexual Assault was selected as one of 27 organization nationwide to receive funding from RALIANCE for our work to prevent the perpetration of sexual violence.

Grantees receive on average less than $2,000 per year. Once the request is approved, the team implements their plan. When completed, the team submits a request for reimbursement, including documentation for all expenses. Those are reviewed and approved before the reimbursement is made. Staff members are in monthly in-person contact with the teams and receive on going reports about the progress of the approved project. Grants are also available under out State Prevention Grant.
