Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy covers board members, officers, and key employees. At each board meeting, a request is made for all board members to disclose any potential conflict of interest pertaining to any item listed on the agenda or pertaining to any potential item that could be discussed during the course of the meeting. The declaration of conflict of interest is recorded in the meeting minutes. The board makes a determination of whether there is a conflict of interest and if so, implements the procedure for evaluating the issue or transaction involved. The board member or officer with the conflict must refrain from voting. A statement of conflict of interest disclosure is made on an annual basis by board members and officers. The information is maintained in a database and a report is provided to the board.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Mary Maertens was compensated by Avera Health for services provided to Avera Marshall and Avera Marshall Foundation. There is a compensation committee of the Avera Health Board of Directors that does review the top 22 employees after Integrated Health Strategies (consultant) reviews and makes recommendations. A full review of benefits and salary is done every other year with a compensation review done on the other year. All decisions are based on comparable data for fair market analysis of like positions. Sharon Williams is compensated by Avera Marshall. Her position is reviewed annually, targeting the 50th percentile of the market for comparable positions in similarly sized healthcare facilities in the US, particularly in the north central region.
