Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Teachers throughout the Washington School District submit applications requesting grants for specified educational programs. Each application is evaluated, and a committee determines which proposals are most beneficial to the students. The teachers whose proposals are selected by the committee are awarded a monetary grant. All money from the grants is used specifically to purchase items and supplies needed to further the purpose of the grant, as stated in the grant application. The teacher grant checks are written directly to the school district and all purchasing of the necessary items and supplies is done by the school district.
