Part I Line 2 Form 990, Schedule F, The following procedures are in place to monitor the use of funding for individual case expenses. A database is utilized for all information related to a grant request. The application includes consent to release information and agreement to return any unused funds immediately. Supporting documents are required, such as letters from doctors on letterhead detailing their diagnosis, history, and specific reason for funding, letter from social worker if requesting displacement assistance, denial from insurance company and verification of income. Physicians and hospitals are verified with investigational resources. A committee is formed to review and approve funding for cases, committee meeting reports are used to show the amount of approved funding for each request. An outcome survey is done for each child that receives funding to ensure that benefits are received. When grants are made to exempt organizations that share our mission or at the request of a donor advised fund contributor, a letter is sent with the grant stating how the money must be used.

Revenue 0 Love Bag®-Through this program, children entering foster care or prevention and therapeutic centers or facing other unforeseen circumstances can receive a bag full of personal necessities. First Hand volunteers fill bags with items like blankets, pajamas, underclothes, and books. Local social service agencies and some Healthe Kids Screenings schools then distribute these bags to children in need. In FY 2015-2016, First Hand distributed 3,391 Love Bags

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11B The 990 is completed by the First Hand staff accountant and reviewed by his supervisor before being provided to an outside tax firm for review. Once this review has taken place, the return is given to the Treasurer who submits the return to the Board of Directors for final approval and submission to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12C First Hand has a conflict of interest policy. The Board members complete a conflict of interest disclosure statement annually.
