Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds are used for the operations of current programs, if needed, and for the expansion of the agency for program and service needs and facilities needed for growth. The permanent endowment funds use only the earnings on the fund while the principal remains intact.
Part X, Line 2	Catholic Charities North Dakota is organized as a North Dakota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and (viii), and has been determined not to be private foundations under Section 509(a)(1) and (3), respectively. The entity is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the entity is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purposes. The entity has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The entity believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The entity would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	All Board members have the same voting rights. When there is a tie, the Board President's vote is the deciding factor. However as described in Schedule O, in the narrative related to Part VI, Section A, Line 7b, certain matters as proposed by the board require a concurring affirmative vote of the members. The Executive Committee shall be composed of the officers of the Board, the Members, and the Executive Director. It shall act as the Steering Committee to plan the regular Board meetings and set the agenda. The Executive Committee shall be authorized to meet and act separately from the Board to transact necessary and urgent business during intervals between regular Board meetings. The Chair of the Board shall be the ex-officio Chair of this committee. All actions taken by the Executive Committee shall be fully explained to the attending Board members at the next regular Board meeting. No significant policy change or controversial action shall be taken by this committee without approval of the full Board. The Executive Committee will be responsible for evaluation and compensation of the Executive Director.
