Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	New board members are provided a copy of the policy to review and to acknowledge in writing that he or she has done so. Each person must annually complete a disclosure form identifying relationships, positions or circumstances in which the responsible person is involved that he or she believes may be a conflict of interest. The policy covers anyone serving as an officer, employee, member of the board of directors or member of any committee exercising powers delegated by the board of directors. After the potential conflict is disclosed to the Chair or Chair's designee, an appropriate disinterested person or committee will be appointed to investigate alternatives to the proposed contract or transaction. After exercising due diligence, the board or committee shall determine by a majority vote whether the contract or transaction is in the NPGA's best interest, for its own benefit or fair and reasonable. In doing so, the board or committee shall not count any vote that the director or committee member having a conflict of interest might otherwise have. If the board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a Responsible Person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the Responsible Person of the basis for such belief and afford the Responsible Person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the Responsible Person's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the board or committee determines the Responsible Person has failed to disclose an actual or possible Conflict of Interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
