Financial transactions resulting from the Foundation Board's decisions are transacted by the Finance Director of Northeastern Mental Health Center (NEMHC), the Foundation's supported organization. The Finance Director's compensation is determined and paid entirely by NEMHC. The factors considered and the process used by NEMHC's CEO for determining the Finance Director's compensation are as follows: - The mission of NEMHC, its responsibilities on behalf of its members, and the role of the Finance Director in carrying out that mission and those responsibilities. - Comparability of compensation received by Finance Directors of similar state-level health and social service trade or professional associations in South Dakota, community behavioral health trade or professional associations in surrounding states, - Performance goals for the Finance Director set by the CEO overall and for any particular year, and - The capacity of the NEMHC budget and expected revenues to support a particular compensation level.
