	Reproductive Rights and Health Filed a precedent-setting complaint with the Office for Civil Rights at HHS to defend a physician's right to speak out on the importance of abortion as a safe and legal medical procedure that is critical to women's health, helped win a favorable decision in the high-stakes Supreme Court case, Whole Woman's Health v. Hellerstedt, by submitting a friend-of-the-court brief on behalf of 48 organizations documenting the ways in which restrictive abortion laws harm women's health and economic security, fought for women's seamless access to birth control without out-of-pocket costs, including by documenting its economic importance to women in a friend-of-the-court brief submitted on behalf of 68 organizations in the Zubik v. Burwell case in the Supreme Court, and by leading efforts, following the Court's decision to remand the case, to guarantee access through the courts and with policymakers, and secured regulations implementing the Affordable Care Act's historic nondiscrimination provision, which NWLC helped to secure, and ensured that the regulations contained many of NWLC's core recommendations
4b	(Code) (Expenses $ 2,457,234 including grants of $ 3,000) (Revenue $ 157,516)

4c	(Code) (Expenses $ 2,405,191 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 15,000)
	Workplace Justice and Women's Legal Rights Worked at the federal level and in the states to advance equal pay for women, securing a federal requirement that employers report pay by gender, race, and ethnicity, and new protections in nine states, won a Defense Department decision to open all military jobs, without exception, to women and to establish gender-neutral standards for all military jobs so that women can compete for them on a level playing field, won reversal of an Army directive that attempted to prevent women who served as Women Air Force Service Pilots in World War II from burial at Arlington Cemetery, promoted broad economic agendas for women in the states, resulting in the introduction of legislation in several states and passage of legislation in Delaware that bans retaliation against employees who share pay information, bans discrimination against caregivers, and bans discrimination against women based on their reproductive health decisions, and educated the public and policymakers about the importance of the courts to women's legal rights, highlighting the impact of widespread vacancies in the federal courts, including the United States Supreme Court, and supporting efforts to fill those vacancies with individuals committed to the protection of those rights

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Center's Controller does the first review internally by matching all numbers to the financial statements and records, and checking all non-quantitative responses for accuracy before a second internal review is done by the Vice President - Finance & Administration and a third review by a Co-President. The Center's outside legal counsel then reviews the document. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors thereafter reviews the document, and it is then provided to all members of the Board of Directors before it is filed.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each year, members of the Board of Directors and key employees are required to complete a form disclosing any interests that may give rise to a conflict of interest. These forms are used to help determine issues on which potential conflicts might arise. In addition, as lawyers, the Co-Presidents are particularly sensitive to potential conflicts of interest and to avoiding even the appearance of a conflict by promptly discussing any potential conflicts with the relevant individuals.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	An outside consultant analyzes compensation of officers and key employees based on the annual national and Washington, DC Area survey data on compensation comparability from the PRM Consulting Management Compensation Report, Not-For-Profit Organizations. The survey includes a wide range of organizations, and it gives results according to budget size that are highly correlated to compensation rates. As part of the analysis, the outside consultant reviews the Center's benefits for reasonableness and in comparison to other comparable organizations. The compensation information in the 990s of organizations similar to the Center is also reviewed for comparability. The two Co-Presidents make recommendations to the compensation committee of the Board of Directors on what the compensation of high-level employees should be, based on the outside consultant's report, for approval by the compensation committee. The compensation committee also determines the compensation of the Co-Presidents, based on the outside consultant's report, and the compensation information from the 990s of similar organizations. All deliberations and decisions of the compensation committee are reflected in contemporaneously drafted and approved minutes of the committee.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Center's articles of incorporation are available for public examination at the office of the District of Columbia Corporations Division. The Center's audited financial statements are available on its website. The Center makes available its governing documents and conflict of interest policy upon request, but, in accordance with applicable law, reserves the right to withhold this information in its discretion.
