Interfaith Housing Alliance, Inc. was founded in 1989 by more than 50 religious and community leaders in western maryland who were concerned by the absence of affordable housing. Since its inception, Interfaith Housing Alliance has completed over 1,100 housing units which include single family USDA self help homes, townhomes, multi-family developments, and senior housing. IHA has also assisted other community organizations in addressing housing issues for special needs populations. The organization's region includes western Maryland and south central Pennsylvania. Interfaith Housing's basic strategy has been to develop projects in collaboration with local governments, social service agencies, and the business and faith communities. Because of these relationships, interfaith housing has developed a successful model for community development by serving as a catalyst in assembling land, financial and technical resources. The housing developed by the organization has clear economic development benefits through the creation of jobs for its projects, and by supporting program participants to become active contributors to the communities in which they reside. Interfaith housing alliance remains committed to its mission to strengthen communities by providing affordable housing opportunities and supportive services to improve the quality of life and economic stability for seniors, working families, and individuals.
