990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is regularly reviewed and consulted. The University requires its officers, directors, trustees and key employees to complete a conflict of interest questionnaire and statement on a regular basis. If any conflict is noted, the officer, director or trustee will recuse themselves from voting during any board meetings.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Regent University regularly reviews the compensation of its officers and vice presidents to determine whether compensation is reasonable compared to similar positions of responsibility at other institutions. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees (in the absence of the Compensation Committee, the Audit Committee will assume this role) will periodically conduct an independent review of compensation which includes the President, all officers and vice presidents. This process includes securing comparable compensation data from an independent source, reviewing the data to ensure that the compensation is reasonable and contemporaneous substantiation of all the deliberation and decision making process. Furthermore, when Regent University hires a new officer or vice president, it will ensure that all compensation is reasonable compared to similar positions of responsibility at other institutions.
