Schedule J, Part II	UNRELATED ORGANIZATION COMPENSATION The organization employees receive compensation and benefits from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, an unrelated organization per 990 instructions. Their compensation is determined in accordance with the pay and employee benefit practices of the North Carolina State Government. The Executive Committee and Interim Foundation President reviewed the compensation paid to each Foundation employee and determined that it is at or below the local market rate of other comparable non-profit organizations. The Foundation provided compensation information to the Executive committee to review for FY 2016. Comparative benchmarks were provided from the AAMC and University of NC that were compared to actual salaries paid. It was determined that the salaries were in line with the benchmarks.
