MUST Ministries, Inc opened a thrift store called MUST MarketPlace where it sells donated items at a discount to provide to their clients as well as the public. One of the advantages of MUST MarketPlace is that clients get to choose the items provided to them that best meets the needs of their family. As part of the mission of helping our neighbors in need, in 2014, Must Ministries, Inc extended this mission by opening Must MarketPlace. In 2015, MUST and Alive Ministries announced a merger to help end child hunger in communities they serve, resulting in the creation of the MUST Save It Forward program ("MUST-SIF"). MUST-SIF operates food pantries in 24 schools (21 Cobb County Schools, two Marietta City Schools and one at Kennesaw State University) serving 330 families in a typical month. The students are identified by a liaison who is either a school social worker, guidance counselor, or academic coach. They are the neediest students who are most at risk: homeless children and families, households with children that have been abandoned by their parents, special needs children and families, families with life altering illnesses, families with recent unemployment and the working poor. In the 2015-2016 fiscal year, MUST SIF distributed a total of 246,830 pounds of food and toiletries to these families.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 2	Must Ministries added the Save It Forward Program by acquiring the assets of Alive Ministries. Save It Forward's mission is to eliminate hunger for at-risk students in local schools so they have a greater opportunity to succeed in school and life. We partner with schools by providing food and toiletries to children and families in need through our campus-based food pantry program. We work very closely with school social workers and counselors to identify children and families in crisis and serve them on a monthly basis throughout the year. One of the unique things about our program is how we empower the community to stock the food pantries by coupon shopping.
