Health Care Services--A major factor which brings a resident to a continuing care facility is access to life-care. Shell Point, with five physicians on staff offers the very best in gerontological care. The 219-bed Pavilion at Shell Point provides a variety of healthcare services including physical therapy, long-term nursing care, Alzheimer's and memory care, and hospice care. In addition, the Pavilion offers professionally staffed activities programs, a waterfront dining room, beauty salon, and family and resident involvement in care planning. Shell Point also offers two assisted living facilities for the resident whose quality of life is improved by supportive services. Kings Crown is a 120 unit facility on the island, and the Arbor is a 132 unit building located in the Woodlands. Both offer beautifully designed apartments, elegant dining room with table service, individualized personal care, 24-hour nurse availability, specialized activities programs, and weekly housekeeping. Shell Point also offers a full-service medical center, dental clinic, professionally staffed social services, Medicare/insurance billing services, licensed home healthcare agency, specialist services, support groups, and an on-site pharmacy with free home delivery
