Line 28) Ag Literacy Day, is a national event that promotes the education of agriculture at local elementary schools. Volunteers read the book 'Drive Through Florida'. They also presented materials on the value and importance of agriculture.

Line 29) Developing an appreciation and experience of agricultural activities we have a program for the school system. Our volunteers put in raised gardens and students were given the task of raising and caring for vegetables. In addition Taylor county has worked to bring a FFA chapter to Taylor county. This works for the betterment of agriculture by training young people in the skills necessary to forward the agriculture program. We have not yet been successful but numerous hours of effort has gone into the planning. We will continue to pursue the program.

Line 30) We hosted a Cold Hardy Citrus Workshop to highlight the growing interest for citrus farming in our county. Attendees learned about grove establishment, the different varieties of citrus, disease, insect ID & control and toured a recently planted grove.
