Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring the Use of Grant Funds

The Organization gives assistance to victims of domestic violence. These victims and their families are referred to the Shelter in one of two ways most of the time. First, the police will call the Organization when they have received a call or discover domestic violence taking place and the Police will tell them they are bringing someone by for assistance. The second way people are admitted is by calling the Crisis Phone Line which is operated by the Organization. When someone calls in with a legitimate need they are told to come to the Shelter where housing, food, clothing, and other needs can be met.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization's Process to Review Form 990

The Financial Statements from which this return is prepared are audited by our independent accounting firm and reviewed by the officers and board of directors. An actual copy of the 990 return is not reviewed by all board members. However, the Form 990 is prepared using the audited financial statements after the Board has reviewed them. The Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer receive and review the Form 990 prior to its filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The organization requires all employees, contractors, agents, officers, and members of the Board of Directors to disclose in writing all business and family relationships that might potentially create a conflict of interest. No member of the Board of Directors may vote on any matter which may directly or indirectly result in financial gain to that member, or which may conflict with that member's obligations to another organization's board of directors, or to that member's employer. Violations of conflict of interest policies are reported to the Compliance Officer and/or Executive Director for follow-up and resolution and, if required, corrective action
