Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

☐

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Yeshiva Elementary School is dedicated to providing a complete Jewish and General Education in an atmosphere that encourages an outlook and conduct based on Torah values. It is our mission to nurture students, to teach them the importance of their Jewish heritage, to provide excellence in education and to foster an environment which allows each student to grow academically, socially and morally throughout their developing years and beyond. We believe that Torah scholarship and general studies are complementary in molding knowledgeable, committed and productive members of the Torah community.
