Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

FOSTERING A LIBERAL ARTS EDUCATIONAL COMMUNITY WHOSE VALUES AND ACTIONS ENCOURAGE CONTRIBUTIONS TOWARD THE WELL-BEING OF HUMANITY

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a	(Code)	(Expenses $ 22,495,597	including grants of $ 0	(Revenue $ 38,243,648)
Instructional Services The University's primary mission is fostering a liberal arts educational community of the highest caliber. The University seeks to develop a community of scholars in both its faculty and student body that is self-critical and tough-minded, and that maintains rigorous academic standards. Through its Paideia program, the University transcends conventional approaches to teaching and learning through a student-driven, faculty-led experience. The program emphasizes intellectual curiosity, promotes connections between academic courses, offers intercultural and diversity experiences, encourages civic engagement, and supports collaborative or guided research and creative works. For the year, the University enrolled 1,463 full-time equivalent students in its academic instructional programs. Most of the University's enrollment is traditional college-age students, and for the Fall 2015 semester 98.9% were enrolled full-time (12 or more credit hours for the semester). The student-teacher ratio was approximately 11.7:1 in the current year.

4b	(Code)	(Expenses $ 30,438,055	including grants of $ 30,438,055	(Revenue $ 0)
Financial Assistance The University seeks to support its primary program services through institutional assistance to students. Institutional financial assistance includes both need-based assistance and merit-based assistance. The primary funding sources for institutional financial assistance are restricted and unrestricted endowments and gifts, and general operating budget support. Approximately 98% of university students receive institutional financial assistance. Approximately 61% of university students receive need-based financial assistance. The University does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, age, disability, national or ethnic origin, or any other impermissible factor, in the management of its institutional financial assistance program.

4c	(Code)	(Expenses $ 10,105,748	including grants of $ 0	(Revenue $ 17,339,868)
Student Services The University seeks to support its primary academic mission through robust student services for its primarily residential liberal arts campus. Student services include the Police department, Academic Success & Records department, student activities, residential life administration, career counseling and services, student health and counseling services, NCAA III athletics, intramural sports, and other services vital to support a residential academic community of the highest caliber and quality.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Conflict of Interest Policy Monitoring & Enforcement The Board of Trustees has delegated ongoing oversight of the University's Conflict of Interest Policy to the Board of Trustees Audit Committee as a permanent duty of the Audit Committee's Charter. The Audit Committee is responsible for proposing changes in the University Conflict of Interest Policy to the full Board of Trustees, and for monitoring compliance with the policy approved by the Board of Trustees. All members of the Board of Trustees, Board committee members, Officers, key employees, members of the Financial Aid office and all professional financial accounting staff annually complete and submit a questionnaire on possible conflicts of interest and independence. Employees of the University other than the President submit conflict of interest information to the President. The President determines if an actual conflict of interest exists and determines the appropriate mitigating action. The president reports to the Audit Committee, on an annual basis, all identified possible conflicts of interest and mitigating actions taken. The President and the members of the Board of Trustees submit conflict of interest and independence questionnaires to the Board of Trustees Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing the situation and recommending to the Board Chairman appropriate mitigating actions. If it is determined that a conflict exists then the Chair of the Board of Trustees or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Trustees or committee shall determine whether the University can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Board of Trustees or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Trustees whether the transaction or arrangement is in the University's best interest and for its own benefit and whether the transaction is fair and reasonable to the University and shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in conformity with such determination. The University also has a whistle-blower policy and process under the oversight and authority of the Board of Trustees Audit Committee.
