(Code) (Expenses $ 8,747,840 including grants of $ 6,617,997) (Revenue $ 217,480)

In FYE2016 Global Fund for Women awarded 329 grants to 263 organizations in 65 countries. They helped strengthen and sustain women's human rights groups in five main regions of the world - Asia and the Pacific, Europe and Central Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, the Middle East and North Africa, and Sub-Saharan Africa. Our funding supported groups working to end gender based violence, promote sexual and reproductive health and rights, and advance economic and political empowerment. This work included supporting female survivors of human trafficking in South East Asia to reclaim their lives, advancing the citizenship and family rights of women in the Middle East, and supporting 22 rural women's organizations in East and West Africa to increase their ecological food production in the face of large-scale agricultural takeovers and climate change. We gave crisis support funding to women's groups facing extreme situations, including the earthquake in Nepal, and violence against women human rights defenders in Central America. We helped strengthen the women's movement by funding 22 women's funds globally and supporting nine regional convening's of women's rights activists. These meetings included a convening in Batumi, Georgia that brought together 84 activists from 16 countries, and a meeting in Istanbul, Turkey for 30 women activists from Iraq and Syria. We continued to strengthen our organizational-wide learning, evaluation and impact systems to capture and analyze data from grantees and stakeholders and to share learnings with internal and external audiences. We upgraded and streamlined our online grantmaking systems and procedures, which reduced staff and grantee time, while retaining an open process. We received and processed more than 3,000 organizational profiles from grassroots women's rights groups in more than 120 countries that are seeking financial support.

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,174,244 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Global Fund for Women continued to expand its advocacy by intensifying media, campaigning, and digital engagement activities to amplify the voices of women and grantee partners around the world. To further strengthen our positioning and messaging in fall 2015 we released new branding inclusive of a new website and new print, online, and media communication materials. We launched #Determined - a photography-driven campaign that presented the portraits and stories of 20 women and girls from 19 countries to spark critical conversations on women's rights and expand visibility on our core impact areas. This campaign generated over 30,000 new social media followers and almost 400,000 social media engagements. We also launched a series of mini-campaigns to reach new audiences and increase funding to grassroots women's groups and movements. In spring 2016, we featured a mini-campaign focused on our grantee partners' work in the aftermath of the Nepal earthquake. Our #Daring campaign spotlighted women's rights leaders demanding progress in the Middle East and North Africa. Over 31,000 people took advocacy actions with Global Fund for Women in FY16. We also secured coverage of women's rights issues in international media from The New York Times to Newsweek. We launched a bi-monthly Movement newsletter to share resources and knowledge with grantee partners and women's movement allies. We also initiated an internal "news bureau", which allowed us to identify and elevate 12 news and crisis response stories/media placements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The Organization's endowment consists of three funds established for a variety of purposes and includes donor-restricted funds. Net assets associated with this endowment are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. The Organization has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to preserve the purchasing power of the Endowment Fund and at the same time provide a regular and growing distribution of funds for the use of the Organization, consistent with the terms of the Endowment Fund Distribution Policy and the terms governing each of the individual endowment funds. A balanced approach is to be taken between risk, preservation of capital, income and growth. The Organization has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year an amount not to exceed six percent of its endowment fund's average asset fair market value. The Board of Directors may request all, a portion, or none of the appropriation be distributed in accordance with the endowment fund's purpose as defined by the endowment agreement or applicable board resolution. Any portion of the distribution not appropriated by the Board shall be kept in the endowment fund, be governed by the endowment investment policy, and be available for future distribution in accordance with the distribution policy.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	All grants awarded fit Board-approved criteria, align with programmatic priorities, and have a strong endorsement from a local advisor or someone who has had meaningful contact with the group. The full Board or the Executive committee of the Board reviews recommendations and makes all final decisions about the grant awards. Grant applications are reviewed twice a year. Initial decisions are made about the appropriateness of the request and groups whose programs do not meet GFW's criteria are promptly notified so that they can pursue other sources of funding. Applications that most closely fit GFW's criteria are reviewed more rigorously and additional information may be requested of the groups. If the group's proposal fits Board-approved criteria, aligns with programmatic priorities, and has a strong endorsement from a local advisor or someone who has had meaningful contact with the group, the program team makes the recommendation for approval. Grantees are required to submit a financial and narrative report at the end of the grant period, which is between six months and three years, depending on the type of grant awarded. While the grants operations team is responsible for monitoring report due dates, informing program team members about overdue reports, and sending reminders to grantees about overdue reports, program team members are ultimately responsible for reviewing progress and final reports. Recipients of multi-year grants are required to submit a progress report on the grant one year from the date the funds were received. These reports are reviewed by the program team prior to the release of the next installment of the grant.

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	All grants awarded fit Board-approved criteria, align with programmatic priorities, and have a strong endorsement from a local adviser or someone who has had meaningful contact with the group. The full Board or the Executive committee of the Board reviews recommendations and makes all final decisions about the grant awards. Grant applications are reviewed twice a year. Initial decisions are made about the appropriateness of the request and groups whose programs do not meet GFW's criteria are promptly notified so that they can pursue other sources of funding. Applications that most closely fit GFW's criteria are reviewed more rigorously and additional information maybe requested of the groups. If the group's proposal fits Board-approved criteria, aligns with programmatic priorities, and has a strong endorsement from a local adviser or someone who has had meaningful contact with the group, the program team makes the recommendation for approval. Grantees are required to submit a financial and narrative report at the end of the grant period, which is between six months and three years, depending on the type of grant awarded. While the grants operations team is responsible for monitoring report due dates, informing program team members about overdue reports, and sending reminders to grantees about overdue reports, program team members are ultimately responsible for reviewing progress and final reports. Recipients of multi-year grants are required to submit a progress report on the grant one year from the date the funds were received. These reports are reviewed by the program team prior to the release of the next installment of the grant.
