	EPIC's mission is to improve educational policy and practices that will increase student readiness for college and career, particularly for students historically underserved by public schools. EPIC conducts a range of policy and practice-related services and techniques that support a dramatic improvement in college and career readiness for students. EPIC continues to advance its mission by improving practice, conducting research, informing policy, and driving innovation. During its past fiscal year, EPIC took part in more than 50 projects and continues to build significant partnerships across the country. The following initiatives illustrate the range of projects undertaken and clients served: EPIC School Partnership (ESP). Last year, EPIC launched the ESP, which serves schools through the use of an implementation framework known as the School Success Model. We use the School Success Model to help schools improve their organizational systems toward a comprehensive set of student outcomes, the Four Keys to College and Career Readiness. EPIC currently has partnerships with Santa Ana Unified School District, Salem-Keizer Public Schools, Anaheim Unified School District, Orange County DOE, Riverside County Superintendent of Schools, and others. Merced Unified High School District. To address low pass rates in high school CTE Capstone courses and assure curricular articulation at local community colleges, EPIC is developing over 30 career pathway frameworks in over 15 industry sectors. The Bridge Method is used to align course curriculum to the appropriate framework and up to the Capstone course in each pathway and then horizontally align the Capstone courses with entry-level community college courses. The College Board (Advanced Placement Course Audit (APCA)). EPIC continues its significant partnership with the College Board. APCA provides teachers and administrators with clear guidelines on the curricular and resource requirements for Advanced Placement courses and syllabi of any course labeled AP. EPIC manages APCAs online platform, content experts, syllabus reviewers, and client call center services. The California Education Policy Fund (a sponsored project of Rockefeller Philanthropy Advisors). EPIC received a two-year grant to advance the projects goals of defining and systematizing college and career readiness (CCR) as the states K-12 education system goal, promoting educational equity to ensure Deeper Learning for all, establishing comprehensive assessment systems to measure college and career readiness, including implementation of new SBAC assessment, anchoring the multiple state accountability systems with CCR indicators, and, developing seamless pathways between K-12 and postsecondary systems, using Common Core standards and SBAC.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
