Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	Denver Public Schools Foundation has three endowment funds, which are held at the original gift amount in perpetuity. The first endowment fund does not have stipulations on the distribution of earnings and, accordingly, the distributions are unrestricted to DPS Foundation and can be used for general operating support or any needs of DPS Foundation. The other two endowment funds do have stipulations on the earnings. Distributions of earnings from these endowment funds are restricted for the A to Z Fund- providing grants to DPS schools for programs and activities that go beyond schools' limited budget-and for education programs within Denver Public Schools.

Form 990, Part V, Line 2a	Number of employees reported on Form W-3 Denver Public Schools Foundation co-employs its employees through an unrelated professional employer organization (PEO) and, as such, the PEO is responsible for filing Forms W-2 and all payroll tax reports Salaries and payroll taxes paid through the PEO are reflected as if DPS Foundation were the sole employer for purposes of the functional expenses and compensation information
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Before filing the Form 990, a copy of the entire Form 990 is included in the board packet sent to each board member A detailed review of the Form 990 is performed by the audit committee and board treasurer After their review, they recommend approval by the entire board of directors Approval of Form 990 is documented in the board meeting minutes

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually all board of directors and all employees are obligated to complete and sign a conflict of interest form disclosing any and all potential conflicts of interest. All potential conflicts of interest listed are reviewed by the President/CEO and Board Chair to determine appropriate action necessary to mitigate any potential conflict. Appropriate action may involve disallowing the person to conduct transactions, prohibiting the person from participation in the board's deliberations and abstaining from voting on those matters and ceasing to conduct business with an individual or organization. The board of directors is notified of all potential conflicts of interest as well as any action taken to mitigate the potential conflict.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The executive committee of the board of directors determines compensation for the President/CEO. The executive committee considers the skill set of the President/CEO, considers past performance, reviews compensation at other similarly-sized not-for-profit organizations, consults with an executive coach/consultant about trends and reviews the current economy to determine compensation. Compensation is reviewed annually for the President/CEO. During 2015-16, DPS Foundation experienced a change in its President/CEO. Compensation for all other employees is determined by the skill set of the employee, past performance and is based on current market practices for similar duties performed by individuals in organizations of similar size. Compensation is directly approved by the President/CEO and ultimately approved by the board as part of its approval of the annual budget.
