Resource Advocate Program The Resource Advocate Program provides the support necessary for individuals to recover from chronic homelessness through relationship with compassionate care managers and highly personalized services that are structured to meet the needs of our guests. Resource Advocates have been trained to complete applications for food stamps and public assistance, and can provide support with disability applications as well as assist clients to obtain identification, birth certificates and military discharge documents. Also, Resource Advocates help guests to find affordable and appropriate housing and access to food, medical care, legal aid, education and employment services. For fiscal year 2016, the Resource Advocate Program conducted 3,768 case management sessions consisting of 851 unique clients who experienced 1,279 positive outcomes.

Winter Shelter Program The Winter Shelter provided over 10,000 bed nights of shelter to 351 homeless adults in Colorado Springs from November 1 - April 15 for fiscal year 2016. It is a seasonal shelter, not dependent on outdoor temperature to open. Persons seeking shelter from winter weather are admitted to the shelter at 6 pm following dinner at the Samaritan's Kitchen of SRM. They spend the night there and leave to have breakfast at the Samaritan's Kitchen. The goal of the Winter Shelter is to keep our homeless friends safe and alive as we make efforts to connect them to the "get off the street" services of our Resource Advocate Program.

Culinary Arts Training Men involved in the New Life Program are now able to gain more intensive culinary training skills. Since 2004, Springs Rescue Mission has offered a 6-month course certified by the American Culinary Federation. Course participants pursue a career in professional cooking and hospitality as they learn the skills necessary to pursue sustainable employment in the food service industry. Graduates are awarded American Culinary Federation certificates upon completion. As a result, New Life Program participants gain highly marketable skills and learn the standards required in today's restaurant and culinary industry. In addition, all food prepared throughout the course feeds those who are seeking help at Springs Rescue Mission.

Family Mentor Alliance Family Mentor Alliance engages local congregations in serving families in need of safe and stable housing. This is accomplished by providing mentoring services and financial assistance for families' transition from homelessness to stable housing. Through the sharing of practical life skills and the formation of new supportive relationships, the families served by the program feel supported and empowered to maintain a household within their means. It is the hope of the program that each family helped will become stronger and maintain stable housing. A total of 41 families graduated and were placed into permanent housing since its inception four years ago.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The financial effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of June 30, 2016, SRM had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or separate disclosure in the financial statements. SRM is generally no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2013.

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Individual assistance. In general the organization asks that clients have some form of ID for client services for furniture, food boxes, house-ware and clothing items. (This is mainly so that the organization and other agencies share/review what is being given away so that the services are not abused or duplicated). Assistance is typically provided to anyone who asks, unless the organization does not have the item on hand. However, there are limits to the number of furniture items, etc. that a person can receive during a month. Organizational assistance. Recipients are required to complete an Ethical Disclosure form which is used to determine if the NPO will receive grants. Expense reports and grant accomplishment detail is provided by recipients of grants over $50,000. Onsite field visits are also conducted to insure grants are expensed in accordance with grant agreements.
